COVID-19 IRCC Policy Modifications

Distance learning from outside of Canada

You can complete up to 100% of your studies online from outside Canada between Spring 2020 and August 31, 2022, because of a temporary COVID-19 policy. This policy is in place until August 31, 2022.

You're eligible for this temporary policy if you meet all of the following criteria:

- You're enrolled in a PGWP-eligible program.
- You were outside Canada and unable to travel to Canada because of the COVID-19 pandemic but were still able to take online courses.
- You began a program in any semester from spring 2020 to summer 2022, or your program was already in progress in March 2020.
- You have a study permit or approval for a study permit, or you have applied for a study permit for which you are eventually approved prior to starting your program.
- You meet all other PGWP eligibility criteria.

University of Windsor

COVID-19 IRCC Policy Modifications

Distance learning from outside of Canada

If you started your program between September 1, 2022 and August 31, 2023, or apply for a study permit before August 31, 2023, you will be able to complete up to 50% of your program online from outside Canada without affecting PGWP eligibility.

- Starting September 1, 2023, all study time completed outside of Canada will be deducted from the length of your PGWP, regardless of when you began your studies.

Spouse of PGWP Holders

I have an open work permit because my spouse is working/studying in Canada. For how long is my permit valid?

Changes to eligibility to work in Canada for spouses, common-law partners and dependent children of work permit holders

Starting on January 30, 2023, we'll expand eligibility to work in Canada to spouses and dependent children of most work permit holders at all skill levels.

You may be eligible for an open work permit if you're a

- spouse, common-law partner or dependent child of a work permit holder who
- works in a job of any Training, Education, Experience and Responsibilities (TEER) category (0 to 5), or
- is the principal applicant and has an open work permit (example: post-graduation work permit holders at all skill levels)
- spouse, common-law partner or dependent child of an economic classes permanent resident applicant who holds a work permit

Normally, your work permit is valid for the same amount of time that your spouse or common-law partner's work permit or study permit is valid. Your work permit will stay valid for that entire period even if

- your spouse or common-law partner's situation changes, for example
- they lose their job
- they complete their studies early
- you divorce or separate

If these situations apply to you, you won't be able to extend this work permit when it expires, but you may be eligible for another type of work permit.

Here are some guidelines for your documents:

- Your form(s) and document(s) must be in an electronic format.
- You do not need to sign your application form by hand if you submit your application form online. You will be asked to provide a digital signature once you are ready to transmit your documents.
- One file will be allowed per document type. For example, if you are asked to provide multiple pages of your passport, you must scan and save all pages as one file.
- You will be required to upload every requested form and document. You will not be able to proceed to the next steps until you upload every form/document.
- A "help" feature provides you with more information about each form/document. The help text will appear below the list of documents.
- The maximum size for each file is 4 MB (four megabytes). We accept these file formats:
 - PDF (Portable Document)

PDF format

- Recreate the PDF with Adobe Distiller set to "lowest file size."
- Ensure that all images in the PDF are set to 96 DPI (dots per inch).
- Remove all unnecessary images.

JPG format

- Scan your document at a lower DPI (dots per inch).
- Remove all empty space around the image.
- Shrink the image.
- Reduce the JPG image quality.

TIFF and PNG format

- Scan your document at a lower DPI (dots per inch).
- Crop the image to remove any empty space around the image.
- Shrink the image.
- Save the file as a JPG format instead.

DOC and DOCX format

- Remove unnecessary images, formatting and macros. Save the file as a recent Word version.
- Reduce the file size of the images before they are inserted in the document.
- If it is still too large, save the file as a PDF format.

✓ Step 4: Pay your fees

After you have electronically signed your application, you will be asked to pay your fees. Your fees must be made with a credit card. You will be required to provide credit card information to complete your payment. We accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express and certain prepaid credit cards.

Once you have paid your fee, you will receive a payment confirmation page. When your payment has completed processing, you will receive a message with your confirmation number and a link to your payment receipt. You should print this page for your records.

After PGWP Submission

How can I show a potential employer I'm allowed to work while I wait for my post-graduation work permit?

You can show a potential employer you're allowed to work by giving them a copy of all of the following documents:

- Proof that you completed your program(s) of study, such as
 - the official letter from your school that confirms you've completed your study program or
 - an official transcript or a copy of your transcript from your school's website
- A copy of your study permit
 - To be allowed to work right away, your permit should say: "May accept employment on or off campus if meeting eligibility criteria per paragraph R186(f), (v) or (w); must cease working if no longer meeting these criteria"
- A copy of the acknowledgement of receipt from your post-graduation work permit (PGWP) application, if you applied online
 - To be allowed to work right away, the acknowledgement of receipt must have been received before your study permit expired

You can use these documents to work only until a decision is made on your application.

If your application for a post-graduation work permit is rejected or refused, you need to stop working as soon as we notify you.

If you don't, any future work or study permits may not be approved, and you may be asked to leave the country.

Travel After Completing Studies

OPTION 1: Leave Canada and return prior to study permit expiry (Study permit is valid for 90 days after completing studies or date on permit – whichever date is earliest) You can request the graduation letter before you leave and have it ready when you return to apply for PGWP.

OPTION 2: Wait for graduation letter and apply for PGWP before leaving Canada. When you return, you would present proof of PGWP application at POE

I'm waiting for my post-graduation work permit. Can I travel outside Canada and come back with my student visa?

You can leave Canada and return, as long as your visa or Electronic Travel Authorization \(eTA\) is still valid. Your permit (study or work) is not a visa and doesn't allow you to travel back to Canada. If your TRV or eTA is expired, you'll have to get a new one before you return to Canada.

- When you return to Canada:
- You may enter as a student if your study permit is still valid.
- If we approve your post-graduation work permit while you're away, you may enter as a worker.
- If we're still processing your post-graduation work permit, you may enter as a visitor, and you can work without a work permit until we make a decision on your application.
- A border officer will have some questions for you when you arrive back in Canada. The officer may ask you for proof that you applied for a post-graduation work permit, such as a copy of your application or the fee payment receipt.
- If the officer believes there is reason to refuse your re-entry, you won't be able to enter Canada.

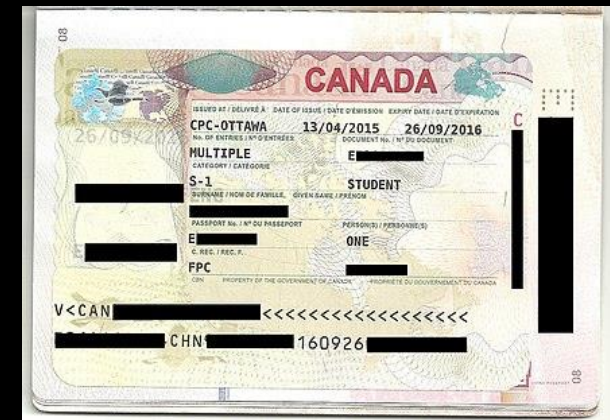

<https://www.cic.gc.ca/english/helpcentre/answer.asp?qnum=1309>

*In both cases, you will need a valid TRV to re-enter Canada

University of Windsor

- Once your work permit is approved, you can apply for your TRV if needed
- Every family member must submit their own TRV application
- Once the application is approved, the passport must be submitted within 30 days to finalize the application process
- Processing time varies (plus time to mail passport and print/send visa)
